SIREN'S CALL AMERICAN LAGER

what's with the siren going off every night? Locals will tell you it was meant to call miners home from the town's brothels, but it's a fire alarm test. The brothels are long gone and we haven't burned down the city since 1898--but you'll still hear the siren on Main Street

POWDER BUOY PILSNER

what on earth does Kauai have to do with fresh pow? When there's a big wave at the NOAA weather buoy off Hawaii, we see snow in Park City two weeks later. Don't believe it? Tell that to the thousands of Powder Buoy believers who plan their ski days by it

SILVER CREEKWATER AMBER LAGER

when miners settled Park City, they polluted Silver Creek so much that it got nicknamed Poison Creek. (This is why we can't have nice things.) Parkites have cleaned it up since then, but the name stuck. We just like the original better blame the hippies for this one: Legend has it that a couple of friends in the 70s threw their uncomfortable shoes into the trees behind Main Street, preferring bare feet over blisters. Fifty years later, the shoe trees are a monument to free spirits-drunk or otherwise

SNEAKERTREE IPA

PC SEASONAL BEER

DRAFT - 7 | PITCHER - 24 | FLIGHT - 10

CINCO POR CIENTO MEXICAN LAGER

brewed with flaked corn and uniquely hopped w/ Motueka providing a wonderful lime zest flavor to this easy-drinking pale lager

COLD TOWN COLD IPA

fermented cool with our house lager strain and hopped w/ Mosaic, Amarillo, and Chinook. Tasting notes of candied grapefruit w/ berry undertones

POG SOUR

philly sour yeast brings a bright acidity to compliment the 1-2-3 fruit punch to the senses of passionfruit, orange, and guava purée additions
