PC BREWING BEER

DRAFT - 7 | PITCHER - 23 | FLIGHT - 10

HOOKER BLONDE ALE

back by popular demand! The original Hooker Blonde Ale was created by the first pioneers of Park City Brewery. Now, Park City Brewing is proud to relaunch this classic with a clean pilsen malt base and refined noble hop combination. Clean, crisp, and crushable. This beer tastes best when out on the river fishing or with good friends at the brewery what on earth does Kauai have to do with fresh pow? When there's a big wave at the NOAA weather buoy off Hawaii, we see snow in Park City two weeks later. Don't believe it? Tell that to the thousands of Powder Buoy believers who plan their ski days by it when miners settled Park City, they polluted Silver Creek so much that it got nicknamed Poison Creek. (This is why we can't have nice things.) Parkites have cleaned it up since then, but the name stuck. We just like the original better blame the hippies for this one: Legend has it that a couple of friends in the 70s threw their uncomfortable shoes into the trees behind Main Street, preferring bare feet over blisters. Fifty years later, the shoe trees are a monument to free spirits-drunk or otherwise

POWDER BUOY PILSNER

SILVER CREEKWATER AMBER LAGER

SNEAKERTREE IPA

JUPE-POW

Utah is known for the greatest snow on earth. We tip our hats to the powder on Jupiter Peak at 9,998 ft elevation. Known as a premier destination for expert skiers and snowboarders, its runs are truly amazing.
